

The Mackinac Island Press is offering State employees a very special discount. You can now purchase any of our books for 30% off the list price and have 10% of your purchase go toward Mentor Michigan.

By announcing this before the holidays you can get great books at great prices – they will be cherished gifts, and donate to charity. Just click on www.mackinacislandpress.com and when you have finished shopping, go to the checkout and put in your special code, "MICH", and it will automatically calculate your discount and keep track of the funds for charity. Your books will be shipped within 2-3 business days.

Here are just some of the books we recommend;

The One, The Only Magnificent Me—

By Dan Haseltine, 3-time Grammy Winner with Jars of Clay—it is a tremendous book about self-esteem. A national bestseller and 2007 BookSense Winter's Pick by the American Booksellers Association. It has been called 'Part Dr. Seuss and part Shel Silverstein.'

Snow Crazy, Tree Crazy, Shell Crazy & Stone Crazy—

"Every 3-4 years something this special comes along that is unique and captivating, with an instant emotional connection. Written with artistic soul and respect for nature, these 'Crazy' little books are precious treasures."

—Donna Paz, consultant for the American Booksellers Association.

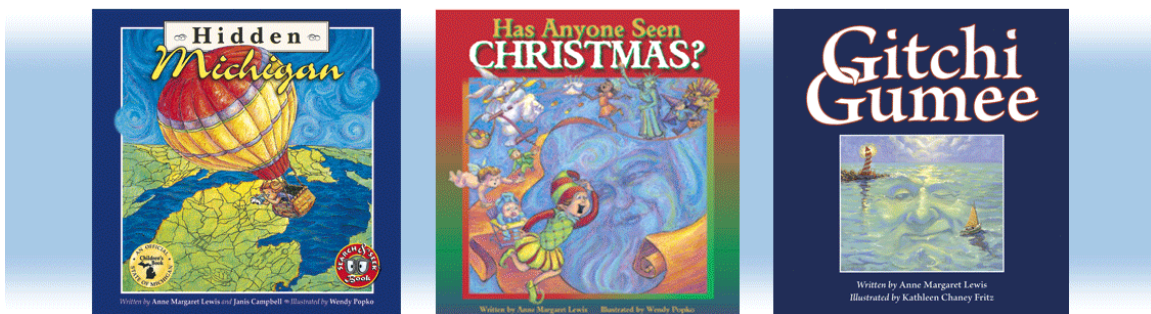

These books are irresistible and are the perfect gift for young and old. The creator of these books, Tracy Gallup, has fans from all walks of life, including Joni Mitchell, Jim Henson (late) and receives thousands of emails from fans across the country.

"The cutting edge of children's publishing"

--Association of Booksellers for Children.

Sleeping Bear: The Legend—

This is some of the best artwork in a children's book ever done—each page was done on large blocks of wood that were woodburned, stained and painted—illustrated by one of the most talented artists in the country, Sarah Grant, founder of Sticks Furniture, and written by bestselling children's author and Anne Margaret Lewis. It is the greatest story of a Mother's love ever told.

Anne Margaret Lewis, is also the author of Michigan's Official Children's book, Hidden Michigan, Has Anyone Seen Christmas? and Gitchi Gumee—all of them are fabulous.

There are also fantastic chapter books series for your elementary school readers.

PaleoJoe's Dinosaur Detective Club—

4 excellent books that are a combination of 'Jurassic Park and Indiana Jones' and read like 'movies for the brain.' What kids don't love dinosaurs?

Adventures of Pachelot—

2 books that teachers all over the country are recommending to their students and has been optioned for a movie. Author Wendy Caszatt-Allen is the modern day Jack London.

Buck Wilder Adventures—

Over 250,000 copies of Buck Wilder books have been sold and teach important environmental and outdoor lessons. Each book includes 'flicker page animation' and a secret message to decode.

You can also call, 1-866-500-7737 and place your order over the phone or ask any questions (9am-5pm est). Mackinac Island Press is dedicated to great books and it shows. Teachers, parents, grandparents and children love them. Enjoy the books, they are treasures that will last a lifetime and help raise money for charity.